SUNDAY OF THE PUBLICAN & THE PHARISEE
February 5, 2017

TROPAR: Believers, let us worship and praise in song the Word of God. He is co-eternal with the Father and the Holy Spirit. Yet he was born of a virgin for our salvation. In the flesh he willingly ascended the cross and suffered death, that he might raise the dead by his glorious resurrection. Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit. Now and forever and ever. Amen

KONDAK: O my Savior, you descended into hell, and you shattered its gates as the Almighty. Together with yourself as the creator you resurrected the dead. You brought to naught the sting of death. Adam has been liberated from the curse, O kind and loving God. And so we all cry out: Save us, O Lord.

PROKIMEN: You, O Lord, will protect us and preserve us from this generation; and that will be forever. Verse: Save me, O Lord, for the godly are no more.

A reading for St. Paul's Second Epistle to Timothy (3:10-15)

Timothy, my son, you have followed closely my teaching and my conduct. You have observed my resolution, fidelity, patience, love, and endurance, through persecutions and sufferings in Antioch, Iconium, and Lystra. You know what persecutions I have had to bear, and you know how the Lord saved me from them all. Anyone who wants to live a godly life in Christ Jesus can expect to be persecuted. But all the while evil men and charlatans will go from bad to worse, deceiving others, themselves deceived. You, for your part, must remain faithful to what you have learned and believed, because you know who your teachers were. Likewise, from your infancy you have known the sacred Scriptures, the source of the wisdom, which through faith in Jesus Christ leads to salvation.

ALLELUIA: O Lord I will sing of your mercies forever; and from generation to generation my mouth will proclaim your truth. Alleluia (3). For you have said: Mercy shall be built up forever; your truth shall be established in the heavens. Alleluia (3).

GOSPEL Luke 18:10-14

"Two men went up to the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. The Pharisee stood up and prayed about himself: 'God, I thank you that I am not like other men—robbers, evil-doers, adulterers—or even like this tax collector. I fast twice a week and give a tenth of all I get.' "But the tax collector stood at a distance. He would not even look up to heaven, but beat his breast and said, 'God, have mercy on me, a sinner.' "I tell you that this man, rather than the other, went home justified before God. For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted."

COMMUNION VERSE: Praise the Lord from the heavens; praise Him in the highest. Alleluia. (3).
