TENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

God's Blessings and Good Health for All Parishioners

Welcome! VITAEMO! You enter this Church - not as strangers, but as a guest of God. He is your heavenly Father. Come, then, with joy in your heart and thanks on your lips into His presence, offering Him your love. Ask His blessing on those who love His house of faith as the inspiration of their labor, rejoicing in the power of the Holy Spirit, and may that blessing rest on you, both in your going out and your coming in. Bringing people together to worship in the hope of everlasting love.

TRANSFIGURATION OF OUR LORD
NINTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST
August 6, 2017

ANTIPHON 1:

Shout with joy to the Lord, all the earth, sing to his name, give glory to his praise!

Through the prayers of the Mother of God, O Savior, save us.

Your thunderous voice resounded in the whirlwind, your lightning illuminated the world, the earth quivered and quaked.

Through the prayers of the Mother of God, O Savior, save us.

You are clothed with glory and majesty, you robe yourself with light as a cloak.

Through the prayers of the Mother of God, O Savior, save us.

Glory: Now and forever: Only Begotten Son:

ANTIPHON 3:

They who trust in the Lord are like Mount Sion; it shall forever stand.

TROPAR: When you were transfigured on the mountain, O Christ God, you showed your disciples as much of your glory as they could possibly bear. Through the prayers of the Mother of God let your everlasting light now shine forth for us sinners. O Giver of light, glory to you.

As the mountains encompass Jerusalem, so does the Lord encompass his people both now and forever.

TROPAR: When you were transfigured on the mountain, O Christ God, you showed your disciples as much of your glory as they could possibly bear. Through the prayers of the Mother of God let your everlasting light now shine forth for us sinners. O Giver of light, glory to you.

O Lord, who shall sojourn in your welling place, and who shall dwell on your holy mountain?

TROPAR: When you were transfigured on the mountain, O Christ God, you showed your disciples as much of your glory as they could possibly bear. Through the prayers of the Mother of God let your everlasting light now shine forth for us sinners. O Giver of light, glory to you.

Who shall go up to the mountain of the Lord, and who shall stand in his holy place?

TROPAR: When you were transfigured on the mountain, O Christ God, you showed your disciples as much of your glory as they could possibly bear. Through the prayers of the Mother of God let your everlasting light now shine forth for us sinners. O Giver of light, glory to you.

EISODIKON: O Lord, send forth your light and truth; thy have led me on and brought m to your holy mountain.

TROPAR: When you were transfigured on the mountain, O Christ God, you showed your disciples as much of your glory as they could possibly bear. Through the prayers of the Mother of God let your everlasting light now shine forth for us sinners. O Giver of light, glory to you.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit. Now and forever and ever. Amen.

KONDAK: When you were transfigured on the mountain, O Christ God, you showed your disciples as much of your glory as they could possibly bear, so that when they look upon you being crucified, they will understand that you suffer freely, and they will proclaim to the world that you are indeed the radiant reflection of the Father.

PROKIMEN: O how great and wonderful are your works, O Lord! In your wisdom you have made them all. Verse: Bless the Lord, O my soul! O Lord, my God, you are exceedingly great.

A reading from Second Epistle of St. Peter (1:10-19)

Brethren, be more zealous to confirm your call and election, for if you do this you will never fall; so there will be richly provided for you an entrance into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Therefore, I intend always to remind you of these things, though you know them and are established in the truth that you have. I think it right, as long as I am in this body, to arouse you by way of reminder, since I know that the putting off of my body will be soon, as our Lord Jesus Christ showed me. And I will see to it that after my departure you may be able at any time to recall these things. For we did not follow cleverly devised myths when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we were eyewitnesses of his majesty. For when he received honor and glory from God the Father and the voice was borne to him by the Majestic Glory, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased," we heard this voice borne from heaven, for we were with him on the holy mountain. And we have the prophetic word made more sure. You will do well to pay attention to this as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts.

ALLELUIA: The heavens are yours, and the earth is yours. Alleluia (3) Happy the people who know that joyful shout, in the light of your countenance, O Lord, they shall walk. Alleluia (3).

Gospel Matthew 17:1-9

After six days Jesus took Peter, James, and John his brother, and led them up a high mountain by themselves. And he was transfigured before them; his face shone like the sun and his clothes became white as light. And behold, Moses and Elijah appeared to them, conversing with him. Then Peter said to Jesus in reply, "Lord, it is good that we are here. If you wish, I will make three tents here, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." While he was still speaking, behold, a bright cloud cast a shadow over them, then from the cloud came a voice that said, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him." When the disciples heard this, they fell prostrate and were very much afraid. But Jesus came and touched them, saying, "Rise, and do not be afraid." And when the disciples raised their eyes, they saw no one else but Jesus alone. As they were coming down from the mountain, Jesus charged them, "Do not tell the vision to anyone until the Son of Man has been raised from the dead."

INSTEAD OF...IT IS TRULY RIGHT: Extol, my soul, the Lord transfigured on Mount Tabor.

IRMOS: You gave birth, O Mother of God, without blemish, God come forth from your womb and revealed himself on earth bearing our flesh and living among his people. And so all of us extol you.

COMMUNION VERSE: We shall walk in the light of your countenance, O Lord, and we shall rejoice in your name forever. Alleluia (3).
