God's Blessings and Good Health for All Parishioners

Saint Peter & Paul Church (Plymouth)

Divine Liturgy: Saturday 4:00PM; Sunday 8:30AM

20 Nottingham Street, Plymouth, PA

Welcome! VITAEMO! You enter this Church - not as strangers, but as children of God. He is your heavenly Father. Come into His presence then, with joy in your heart and thanks on your lips, offering Him your love. Ask His blessing on those who love His house of faith as the inspiration of their labor, rejoicing in the power of the Holy Spirit, and may that blessing rest on you, both in your going out and your coming in. Bringing people together to worship in the hope of everlasting love.

EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

October 8, 2017

TROPAR: Even though your tomb was sealed with a stone by your people, and soldiers guarded your most pure body, you arose on the third day, O Savior, giving life to the world. And so the heavenly powers cried out to you, O Giver of life: Glory to your resurrection, O Christ. Glory to your lasting reign. Glory to your salvation plan, one and only true lover of all people.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and the Holy Spirit. Now and forever and ever. Amen.

KONDAK: You arose from the grave as God in glory. With yourself you raised the world. All humanity acclaim your divinity in song, and death is no more. So Adam exults, O Master, and Eve now liberated from bonds cries out in jubilation: O Christ, it is you who give resurrection to all.

PROKIMEN: Your mercy, O Lord, be upon us, for we have hoped in you.

Verse: Rejoice in the Lord, you righteous ones; praise from the upright is fitting.

A reading from St. Paul's Second Epistle to the Corinthians (2 Cor. 9:6-11)

Brethren, he who sows thinly will reap thinly. He who sows in abundance will reap abundantly. Each one should give as his heart resolves, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves the cheerful giver. God has the power to increase every blessing for you so that you will always have enough of all that you need to enrich yourself for every good work, As it is written: "He scattered seed and gave to the poor; his justice abides forever and ever." May he who gives seed to the sower provide bread for food, make your seed plentiful and increase the harvest of your justice so that you may become rich in every way. Through us it causes thanks to be offered to God.

ALLELUIA: It is God who avenges me. He has subdued the nations under me. Alleluia (3). He extols the great victories of his king, and deals mercifully with David, his anointed, and his posterity forever. Alleluia(3).

GOSPEL Luke 7:11-16

Soon afterward, Jesus went to a town called Nain, and his disciples and a large crowd went along with him. As he approached the town gate, a dead person was being carried out—the only son of his mother, and she was a widow. And a large crowd from the town was with her. When the Lord saw her, his heart went out to her and he said, “Don’t cry.” Then he went up and touched the bier they were carrying him on, and the bearers stood still. He said, “Young man, I say to you, get up!” The dead man sat up and began to talk, and Jesus gave him back to his mother. They were all filled with awe and praised God. “A great prophet has appeared among us,” they said. “God has come to help his people.”

COMMUNION VERSE: Praise the Lord from the heavens; praise Him in the highest. Alleluia. (3)

Prayer to the All-Holy Theotokos

By One Who is in Trouble and Affliction

O mine all-good Queen, mine all-holy hope, receiver of orphans and assister of strangers, helper of the unfortunate and protection of the afflicted! Thou seest my peril, Thou seest my tribulation: I am beset by temptations on every side, but there is no one to help me. Wherefore, do Thou Thyself help me, for I am sick; feed me, for I am a stranger; guide me, for I am lost; heal and save me, for I am beyond hope. I have none other help, I have none other intercession or consolation, save Thee, O Mother of all who are troubled and heavily burdened. Wherefore, look upon me, a sinner in affliction, and cover me with Thine all-holy omophorion, that I may be delivered from the evils which compass me round about, and may continually praise Thine all-hymned name. Amen

-From the Akathist to the Protection of the All-Holy Theotokos

A Prayer for Peace of Mind

Almighty God, We thank you for our lives and we praise for your abundant mercy. We, your unworthy servants, thank you for your blessings. We ask you for peace, of mind, body, soul and spirit. We ask you for healing and peace in our stress, grief, and sorrow during these troubled times. For Your right hand, O Lord, is glorified in strength; Your right hand, O Lord, has shattered the enemy and in the multitude of Your glory; You have crushed your adversaries. Guide us through our lives so that we may inherit eternal life. Let your peace reign in us and everything we do. For an angel of peace, a faithful guide, a guardian of our souls and bodies, let us pray in the name of the Father, the Son and Holy Spirit. Amen.

Matthew 10:34-11:18- “Do not suppose that I have come to bring peace to the earth. I did not come to bring peace, but a sword. For I have come to turn a man against his father, a daughter against her mother, a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law— a man’s enemies will be the members of his own household. “Anyone who loves their father or mother more than me is not worthy of me; anyone who loves their son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me. Whoever does not take up their cross and follow me is not worthy of me. Whoever finds their life will lose it, and whoever loses their life for my sake will find it. “Anyone who welcomes you welcomes me, and anyone who welcomes me welcomes the one who sent me. Whoever welcomes a prophet as a prophet will receive a prophet’s reward, and whoever welcomes a righteous person as a righteous person will receive a righteous person’s reward. And if anyone gives even a cup of cold water to one of these little ones who is my disciple, truly I tell you, that person will certainly not lose their reward.”
