Welcome! VITAEMO! You enter this Church - not as strangers, but as a guest of God. He is your heavenly Father. Come, then, with joy in your heart and thanks on your lips into His presence, offering Him your love and service. Ask His blessing on those who love His house of faith as the inspiration of their labor, rejoicing in the power of the Holy Spirit, and may that blessing rest on you, both in your going out and your coming in. Bring our people together to worship in the hope of everlasting love.

FATHER'S DAY
FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

June 17, 2018

TROPAR: Let the heavens be glad, let the earth rejoice, for the Lord has done a mighty deed with His arm. He trampled death by death. He became the first-born of the dead; He saved us from the abyss of Hades and granted great mercy to the world.

TROPAR: O you, who glorified Christ: princes and bishops, monastics and martyrs, and steadfast confessors of Christian Ukraine throughout all times, pray Christ God to look with favor on our people and to grant them the grace to persevere in the faith that the souls of prayerful faithful* who revere your sacred memory may be saved.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

KONDAK: You rose from the tomb, O compassionate Lord, and led us out from the gates of death. Today Adam exults and Eve rejoices, and the prophets together with the patriarchs unceasingly acclaim the divine might of Your power.

Now and for ever and ever. Amen.

KONDAK: You shine as bright beacons, O God-inspired and righteous saints of our Church. By your encouraging example, you serve communities of faithful throughout the Christian world. Therefore, we humbly bow our heads to you thanking our great and all-gracious God Who has made you our intercessors in heaven where you pray for our souls.

PROKEIMON: Sing to our God, sing; sing to our King, sing. verse: Clap your hands, all you nations; shout unto God with the voice of joy.

A reading from St. Paul's Epistle to Romans 6:18-23:

Brethren, freed from sin, you have become slaves of righteousness. I am speaking in human terms because of the weakness of your nature. For just as you presented parts of your bodies as slaves to impurity and to lawlessness for lawlessness, so now present them as slaves to righteousness for sanctification. For when you were slaves of sin, you were free from righteousness. But what profit did you get then from the things of which you are now ashamed? For the end of those things is death. But now that you have been freed from sin and have become slaves of God, the benefit that you have leads to sanctification, and its end is eternal life. For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

ALLELUIA: Alleluia(3) In You, O Lord, have I hoped that I may not be put to shame for ever. Alleluia(3) Be a protector unto me, O God, and a house of refuge to save me. Alleluia(3) Blessed is the man who fears the Lord; he shall delight exceedingly. Alleluia(3)

Gospel of Matthew 8:5-13

At that time as... Jesus had entered Capernaum, a centurion came to him, asking for help. "Lord," he said, "my servant lies at home paralyzed and in terrible suffering." Jesus said to him, "I will go and heal him." The centurion replied, "Lord, I do not deserve to have you come under my roof. But just say the word, and my servant will be healed. For I myself am a man under authority, with soldiers under me. I tell this one, 'Go,' and he goes; and that one, 'Come,' and he comes. I say to my servant, 'Do this,' and he does it." When Jesus heard this, he was astonished and said to those following him, "I tell you the truth, I have not found anyone in Israel with such great faith. I say to you that many will come from the east and the west and will take their places at the feast with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven. But the subjects of the kingdom will be thrown outside, into the darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth." Then Jesus said to the centurion, "Go! It will be done just as you believed it would." And his servant was healed at that very hour.

COMMUNION HYMN: Praise the Lord from the heavens; praise Him in the highest. Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia. Rejoice in the Lord, O you just; praise befits the righteous. Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

The Church Bulletins for the month of June are donated by the Skordy Family in loving memory of Russell and Anna Skordy.

PSALM 26(1-12)

Vindicate me, LORD, for I have led a blameless life;
I have trusted in the LORD and have not faltered.
Test me, LORD, and try me, examine my heart and my mind;
for I have always been mindful of your unfailing love and have lived in reliance on your faithfulness.
I do not sit with the deceitful, nor do I associate with hypocrites.
I abhor the assembly of evildoers and refuse to sit with the wicked.

I wash my hands in innocence, and go about your altar, LORD, proclaiming aloud your praise and telling of all your wonderful deeds.
LORD, I love the house where you live, the place where your glory dwells.
Do not take away my soul along with sinners, my life with those who are bloodthirsty, in whose hands are wicked schemes, whose right hands are full of bribes.
I lead a blameless life; deliver me and be merciful to me.
My feet stand on level ground; in the great congregation I will praise the LORD.

4th Sunday After Pentecost- Healing of the Centurion's Servant

In many passages throughout the Gospels, Jesus heals people, both physically and spiritually. In this case, He demonstrates that He is the Savior of all, because the centurion -commander of 100 men in the Roman army - is a Gentile. With Christ, ethnic and social distinctions do not matter when it comes to salvation. The phrase from this story, "Lord I am not worthy that you should come under my roof ..." is used frequently in liturgical services. It is an expression that shows our deep unworthiness before God, and helps us understand the notion of true modesty. In this story, the centurion's faith in Jesus as Lord is complete and firm. He even believes that Christ does not need to come and visit his sick servant, but "only say the word" and he shall be healed. This is an example for all of us to put our complete trust in God, to heal our soul and our bodies, and that even though we may be unworthy, Christ will heal us and grant us our petitions. Jesus praises the centurion and lifts him up as a model of faith, and challenges us to have that same kind of unwavering and complete faith in Him.
