NINTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

August 7, 2022

ANTIPHON 1

Shout to the Lord, all the earth, sing now to His name, give glory to His praise.

Through the prayers of the Mother of God, O Savior, save us.

The voice of Your thunder was in the whirlwind; Your lightning lit up the world.

Through the prayers of the Mother of God, O Savior, save us.

You have clothed Yourself in praise and splendor.

You robe Yourself in light as with a cloak.

Through the prayers of the Mother of God, O Savior, save us.

Glory... Now... Only begotten Son...

ANTIPHON 3

Come, let us sing joyfully to the Lord, let us acclaim God, our Savior.

Son of God, transfigured on the mount, save us who sing to You: Alleluia.

Let us come before His face with praise and acclaim Him in psalms.

Son of God, transfigured on the mount, save us who sing to You: Alleluia.

For God is the great Lord, and the great king over all the earth.

Son of God, transfigured on the mount, save us who sing to You: Alleluia.

TROPAR: You came down from on high, O Merciful One, and accepted three days of burial to free us from our sufferings. O Lord, our life and our resurrection, glory be to You.

TROPAR: You were transfigured on the mount, O Christ God, showing Your glory to Your disciples as much as they could bear. Make Your eternal light shine also on us who are sinners, through the prayers of the Mother of God, O Giver of Light, glory to You!

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit. Now and forever and ever. Amen.

KONDAK: You were transfigured on the mount, O Christ God, and Your disciples saw Your glory as much as they could; that when they saw You crucified, they might know that You suffered willingly, and might proclaim to the world that You are truly the brightness of the Father.

PROKIMEN: Pray and give praise to the Lord our God. Bless the Lord, O my soul; O Lord my God, You are exceedingly great. How great are your works O Lord You have made all things in wisdom.

A Reading of the First Epistle from the Holy Apostle Paul to the Corinthians (3:9-17):

Brethren, for we are co-workers in God's service; you are God's field, God's building. By the grace God has given me, I laid a foundation as a wise builder, and someone else is building on it. But each one should build with care. For no one can lay any foundation other than the one already laid, which is Jesus Christ. If anyone builds on this foundation using gold, silver, costly stones, wood, hay or straw, their work will be shown for what it is, because the Day will bring it to light. It will be revealed with fire, and the fire will test the quality of each person's work. If what has been built survives, the builder will receive a reward. If it is burned up, the builder will suffer loss but yet will be saved—even though only as one escaping through the flames. Don't you know that you yourselves are God's temple and that God's Spirit dwells in your midst? If anyone destroys God's temple, God will destroy that person; for God's temple is sacred, and you together are that temple.

ALLELUIA: Alleluia (3). The Lord will hear you in the day of tribulation; the name of the God of Jacob will shield you. Alleluia (3). Lord, grant victory to the king and hear us in the day that we shall call upon You. Alleluia (3). Yours are the heavens, and Yours the earth. Alleluia (3).

Matthew 14:22-34

At that time, Jesus made the disciples get into the boat and go on ahead of him to the other side, while he dismissed the crowd. After he had dismissed them, he went up on a mountainside by himself to pray. Later that night, he was there alone, and the boat was already a considerable distance from land, buffeted by the waves because the wind was against it. Shortly before dawn Jesus went out to them, walking on the lake. When the disciples saw him walking on the lake, they were terrified. "It's a ghost," they said, and cried out in fear. But Jesus immediately said to them: "Take courage! It is I. Don't be afraid." "Lord, if it's you," Peter replied, "tell me to come to you on the water." "Come," he said. Then Peter got down out of the boat, walked on the water and came toward Jesus. But when he saw the wind, he was afraid and, beginning to sink, cried out, "Lord, save me!" Immediately Jesus reached out his hand and caught him. "You of little faith," he said, "why did you doubt?" And when they climbed into the boat, the wind died down. Then those who were in the boat worshiped him, saying, "Truly you are the Son of God." When they had crossed over, they landed at Gennesaret.

INSTEAD OF IT IS TRULY RIGHT....: O my soul, magnify the Lord transfigured on the mountain. Your giving birth was revealed as incorrupt; for it was God who came forth from your womb; He appeared on earth in the flesh and made His dwelling among us. Thus, O Mother of God, all of us magnify you.

COMMUNION HYMN: Praise the Lord from the heavens; praise Him in the highest. Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia. We will walk in the light of Your face, O Lord, and rejoice in Your name forever. Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

UKRAINIAN REFUGEES: From the Archeparchial Chancery: Dear Friends, you can bring a Ukrainian to safety in the United States. Now, more than ever, this act of welcome will change lives. In just 5 days, 5,000 families have signed up on Welcome Connect, hoping to connect with potential sponsors as they seek refuge in the United States. Welcome Connect is a first-of-its-kind platform that enables Americans who want to be a sponsor, but don't know anyone fleeing the war in Ukraine, to be connected with Ukrainians seeking refuge. If you have been looking for a way to help, this is it! Register at Welcome Connect to sponsor a Ukrainian (click to open the link to Welcome Connect). Registration is not an immediate obligation to sponsor – you can create a profile, be offered an online training and start the process of connecting with a Ukrainian seeking refuge to decide whether sponsorship is a good fit for you. After you sign-up, spread the word. Your friends, family, colleagues, and neighbors may also want to help but don't know how; let them know about Welcome Connect. Thank you for being a welcomer!

BLESSING OF FLOWERS: Sunday, August 15th is the Dormition of the Holy Mother of God. There will be Blessing of Flowers immediately following the 6:00 PM Divine Liturgy. Please remember to bring flowers to church if you wish to bless them.

ASK FATHER A QUESTION? What is the Dormition Fast and when did it start?

Just like the Feast of Resurrection (Easter), there is a preparation period which lasts 40 days (The Great Fast). The preparation period for the Feast of the Dormition of Holy Mother of God is a two-week preparation/penitential period, which begins August 1 of each year. As the Great Fast ends with the Dormition of Christ on the Cross (Good Friday), we prepare for our Blessed Lady's Dormition and her resurrection and ours, even though we don't experience it yet in time. This preparation period is not only for her feast, but also to prepare us for our Dormition and resurrection and to lead us to heaven. BUT Father, can you explain this in English? The Dormition of the Mother of God is the day that she died. The Blessed Mother was put in a tomb. Thomas-aka Doubting Thomas, the Apostle, was not present at her death and burial, he asked to see where she was laid and when they arrived at the tomb was empty and filled with the aroma of roses. Roman Catholics call this day the Assumption of the Mother of God because her body was taken to heaven. HOW DO WE KEEP THIS FAST PERIOD? The traditional fast is a period of 14 days no meat and dairy. The fast is voluntary. Just like Lent we can omit meat perhaps on Wednesdays and Fridays, if we choose.

PRAYER FOR THE CHURCH

We pray You, O almighty and eternal God! Who through Jesus Christ hast revealed Your glory to all nations, to preserve the works of Your mercy, that Your Church, being spread through the whole world, may continue with unchanging faith in the confession of your name. Amen.

PRAYER FOR THE PROTECTION OF THE CHURCH

O glorious St. Michael, guardian and defender of the Church of Jesus Christ, come to the assistance of the Church, against which the powers of hell are unchained, guard with especial care her august Head, and obtain that for Him and for us the hour of triumph may speedily arrive. O glorious Archangel St. Michael, watch over us during life, defend us against the assaults of the devil, assist us especially at the hour of death; obtain for us a favorable judgement, and the happiness of beholding God face to face for endless ages. Amen.
